VOLUME 28

1983

UTICA JUNIOR COLLEGE
UTICA, MISSISSIPPI 39175

OPENING TO

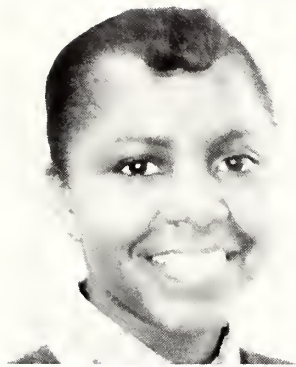

This year has been filled with adversities, yet we sustained. Changes and mishaps have occurred, yet we endured. Utica Junior College has withstood for eighty years merely on the foundation in which it was built—determination. From this core of determination has grown quality. Through quality, excellence prevailed. Opening doors and shaping minds are natural phenomena for Utica Junior College. Its proud heritage and large array of success stories highlight its presence. Piercing through the clouds of enrollment, gazing into a new horizon, Utica Junior College has trodden into a new decade leaving its educational mask on the faces of those having even the smallest ambition. From determination and a dream, Utica Junior College was formed. From a desire it was established. From dedication it grew and from support it stands. From yesterday our tomorrow was planned. Yet, hoping that tomorrow will reflect our yesterday, we now begin our journey into—a new horizon.

ACADEMICS

Alright students, the motivation session is over, let's get to work. Students seem to enjoy Dr. Haynes' class. They say that she is one of the best.

Joan is the chemist of tomorrow. From this a cure for the incurable is in the making.

A mind IS a terrible thing to waste.

Mr. Berry's class is looking forward to making a discovery.

Mr. Bruce holds an after class consultation with a concerned student.

The more I feed this computer the hungrier I am for more programs.

Beverly, Glenn, it's break time. Computer science students seem to find it hard to break away from computers.

Leonard and Butler spend most of their time in the electronics room. Practice makes perfect.

Shelly tutors friend. Her daily activities are centered around helping those who need her assistance.

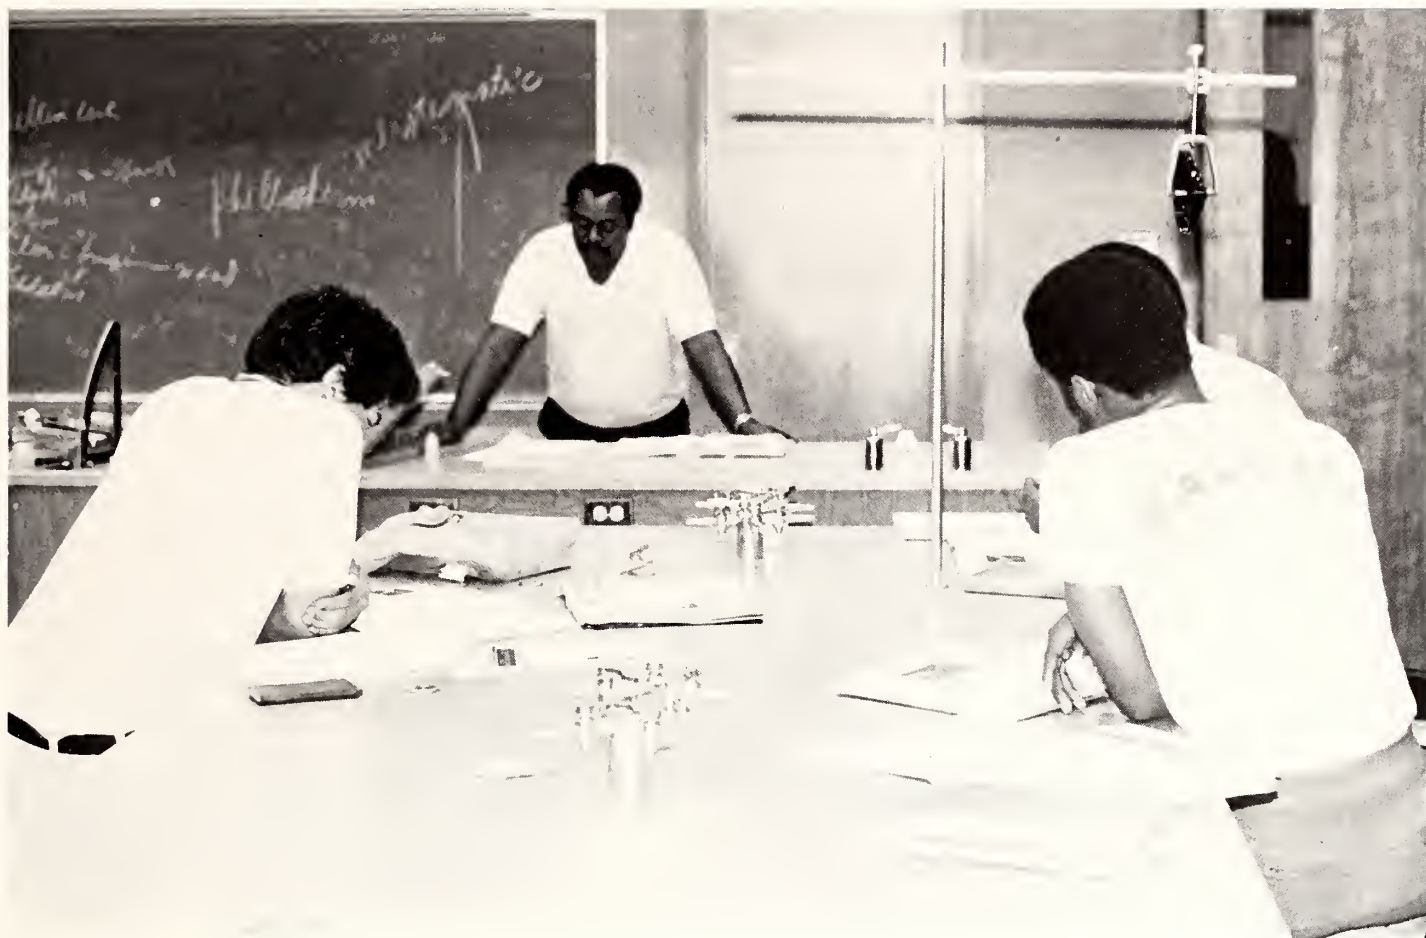

Nick reviews assignment before class. Better late than never.

Marcellus, do you ever take a break? Wasted time is lossed knowledge.

DIVISION

Let's talk theory for a minute, shall we! Let's begin with Nick.

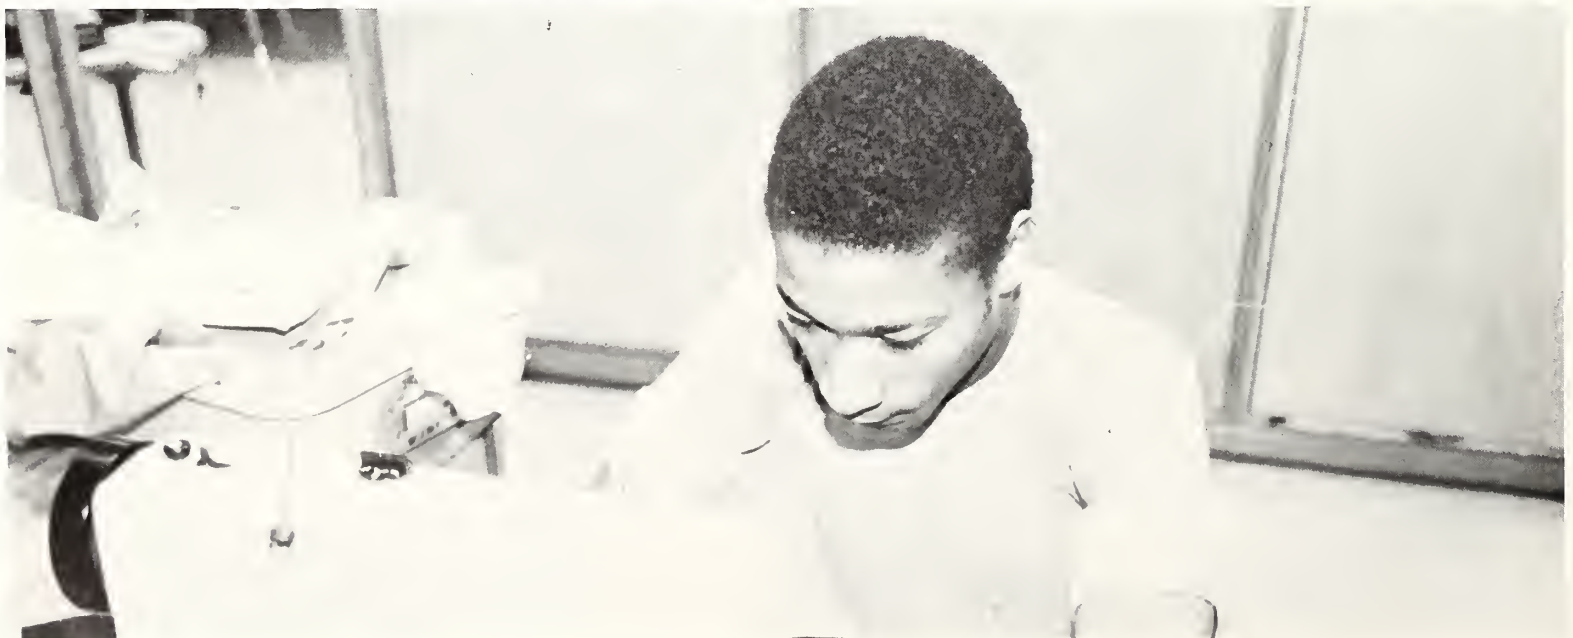

How many grams is that Marcellus? Let's not go over board. So, that's what keeps you going—AMBITION.

TECHNICAL

Mary, Carolyn and Linda take time to study and complete homework. There must be a lot of homework, Linda is sharpening her pencil for the second time.

Sheliah works on completing several outfits that she models during the annual Model Of The Year Pageant. Sheliah is a sophomore clothing and textile major from Canton. She captivated the audience with her designs of shawls, casual and dress wear, thereby capturing the title of Model Of The Year.

Reese makes sewing look simple. His pattern is from Vogue.

DIVISION

Butler has to get all of the screws out of even the smallest device, especially when they don't fit. Mr. Ford claims everything has to fit in exactly the right place. TOUGH.

Darlene what happens when the needle breaks, the material is delicate and Mrs. Woolman is on you to finish a project? Sheliah says you remain calm and rip the material.

VOC-TECH

The vocational and technical division is a major attribute for many students who plan to enter the work-force upon graduation. Knowledge and skill give the UJC student that special edge.

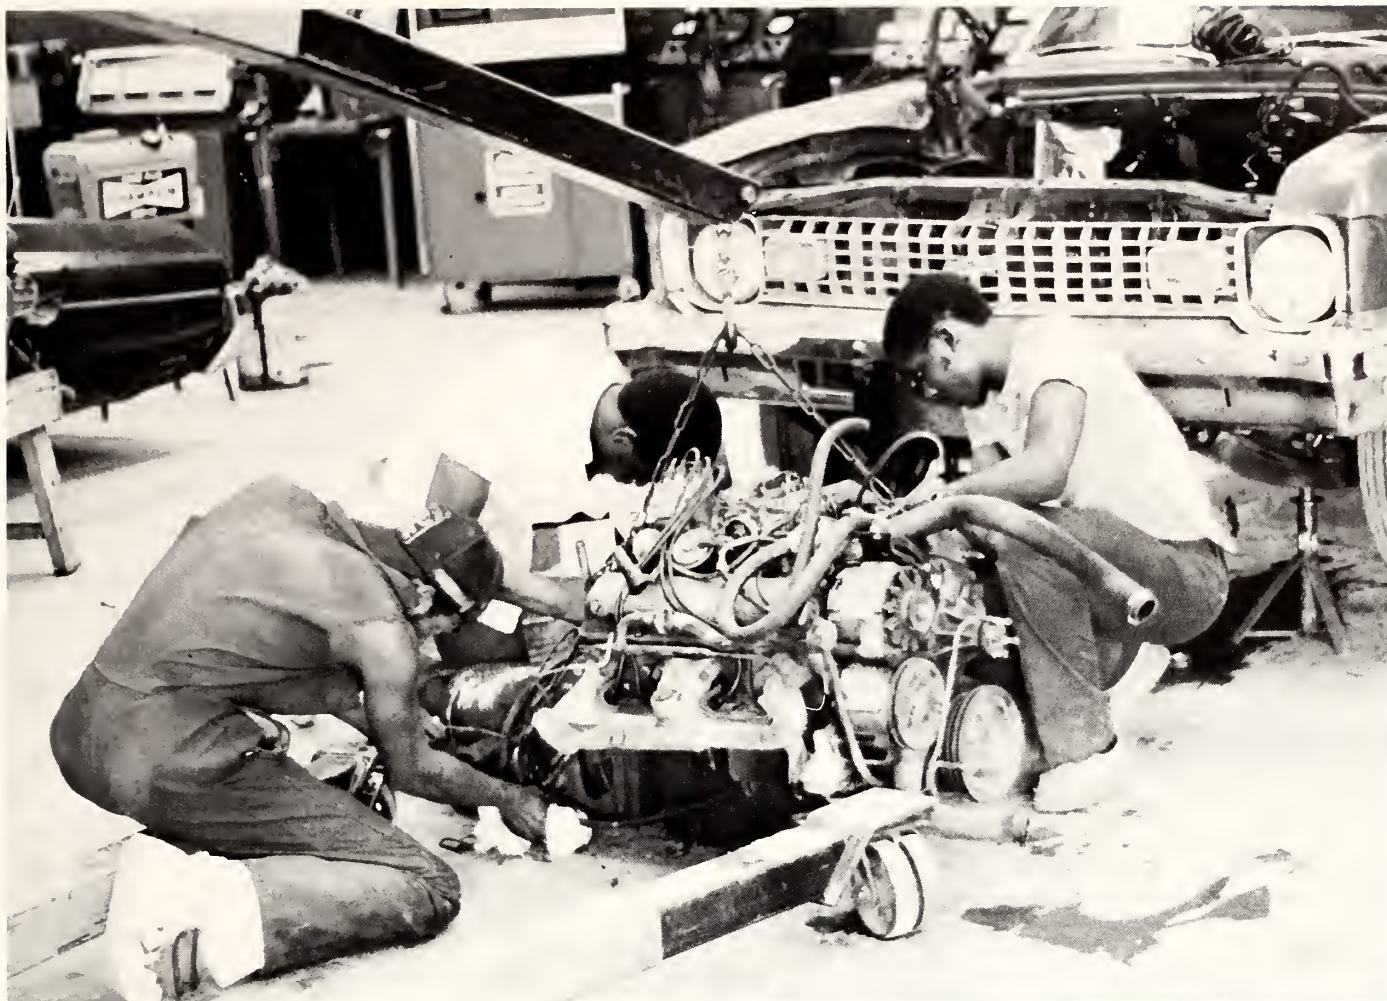

With its proud history, Utica Junior College continues to serve some of Mississippi's finest through its 17 vocational-technical offerings. The vocational-technical division is designed to provide students with training and experiences whereby developing expertise in their major field. This experience will better prepare students to enter the work-force. Approximately 95% of all welding graduates are offered jobs upon graduation and 98% of all barbering students are employed. Many of which are self-employed. Preparing students for the future is what UJC is all about. Dr. Worth Haynes is Vocational-Technical Director.

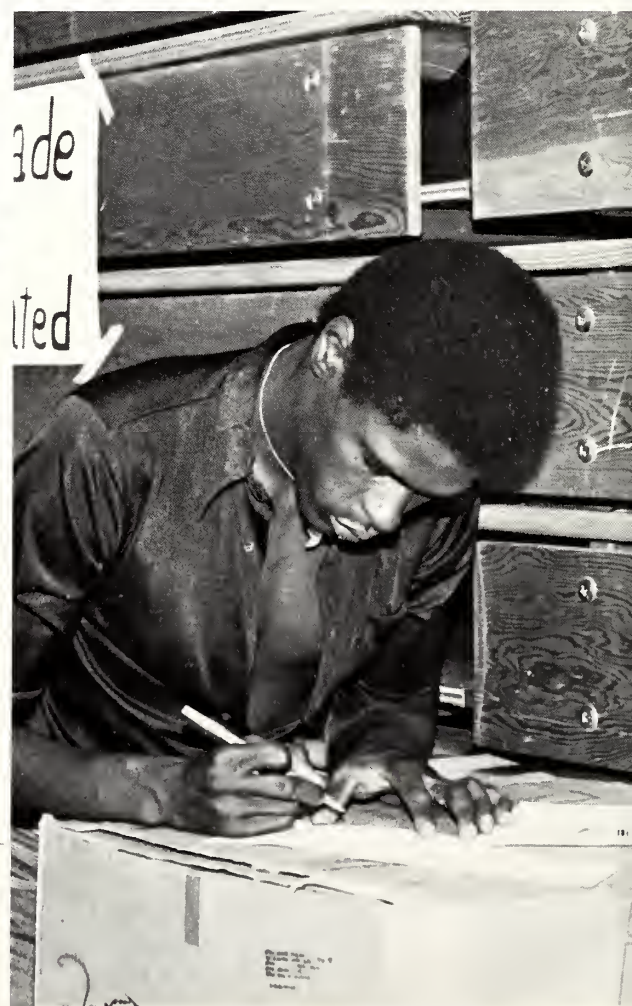

Confidence comes with Know-how. Constance Gilmore has both.

GRADUATION

SPECIAL HONORS

Each year at the beginning of school, President and Mrs. Stokes host an outing for incoming freshmen. The activity is always well attended. Faculty members, the nursery school and sophomores also take part. This event serves as a time to renew old acquaintances, meet new friends and socialize. The Utica Junior College family prefer calling it—The Freshmen Pow-Wow.

VICE-PRESIDENT J. LOUIS STOKES

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Students, Faculty, Supporters, and Friends:

In the beginning was the end.

This scholastic year starts more than a new academic term for Utica Junior College, it starts a new association and alliance. The new association is with the Hinds Junior College District. Conversely, the independent educational institution of Utica Junior College comes to an end. There are adjectives to describe the deep sense of lost, however totally adequate ones fail to presently surface.

It is hoped that the aftermath of this new beginning will be hallmarked by actions and events of integrity that will advance human dignity, promote intellectual development for all persons and provide expanded opportunities.

In the beginning was the end.

Utica Junior College

UTICA, MISSISSIPPI 39175

Acting Vice-President George E. Barnes

OFFICE OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT

October 14, 1982

Dear Faculty, Staff, and Students:

The pride of any institution of higher learning is to have a yearbook that accurately chronicles its activities. This yearbook staff has made us proud by vividly portraying and reflecting the activities and experiences shared by Utica Junior College's faculty, staff, students and the community.

The purpose of education is to develop the potential of individuals for the betterment of society; therefore it is indeed important that all facets of any educational program consist of quality faculty, staff and students. For this Utica Junior College strives. It has highly professionally trained faculty and staff who are inspired and dedicated to the task of developing individuals to their fullest capacities. The faculty and staff not only adapt to the needs of the students and the community, but they also seek student success and search for new methods to achieve this success.

Another essential vehicle is the curriculum and its relationship to the development of individuals. At Utica Junior College, the curriculum is varied. It not only concerns itself with the development of one's academic and social responsibilities, but it also provides much broader understanding and recognition of how everything is interrelated. This curriculum further provides physical, emotional and spiritual growth, thus making the well-educated, competent student capable of reflective thought.

The events and activities shared in these pages by faculty, staff, students, and the community, serve as a mirror that will reflect for years, positive experiences. It is evident that much time and effort have gone into this publication; therefore, congratulations go to those who worked so diligently to insure its success.

Respectfully yours,

George E. Barnes

LORA YOUNG

MISS UJC PAGEANT

The Miss UJC pageant is the most prestigious pageant held on campus. Young ladies with different personalities and interest strive to achieve the honor. This year the spotlight will focus on Lora Young, Miss Utica Junior College 1982-83. Lora is a business administration major from Utica. She is a dean's list scholar who believes that you should take one day at a time and live each one to its fullest. Lora captivated the audience with her clarinet solo of Michael Jackson's "I'll Be There." She was inspired to participate in the pageant by friends but admits that her mother is the most influential person in her life. Lora is 5'6", 125 pounds. Her measurements are 36-26-36. She is the granddaughter of Mr. & Mrs. Wilson Young.

Mary Johnson, a clerical science major from Port Gibson, was elected second runner-up to Miss UJC. Mary was inspired to enter the pageant by her most influential person—her mother. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Willie Johnson and is a dean's list scholar. Her measurements are 34-26-38.

Valarie Dawson, daughter of Dr. & Mrs. Eddie Dawson, was elected 1st alternate in the Miss UJC pageant. Valarie entertained the audience with a dramatization of Black poetry. She is a sophomore computer science major from Jackson. She is a Leo who looks forward to facing tomorrow's challenges. Her measurements are 32-24-32.

Some of us just love challenges. Cassandra Bennett entered the Miss UJC pageant because she saw it as being a challenge. All eyes were on Mary as she performed a dramatic reading which placed her third in competition. She is a food service major who has maintained a B+ average. Her measurements are 36-27-36. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lewis Bennett, Sr.

The first Miss Black Summer pageant was held July in the gymnasium. William Foster, a sophomore media student, was coordinator and host of the pageant. Many students hope to make it an annual event. Contestants were Carolyn Fair, Alice Hilliard, Paulette Holmes, Linda Divinity, Brenda Williams, and Jeanette Williams. Grace, poise and coordination were the focusing points in determining the first Miss Black Summer.

Carolyn Fair, Miss Black Summer 1982-83, is a freshman secretarial science major from Edwards. Carolyn has participated in several pageants. She captured the title of Miss Upward Bound and was selected second alternate in the statewide Miss Upward Bound pageant.

MISS BLACK SUMMER

Paulette Holmes, first alternate, is a native Jacksonian who is often seen on "Black Gold". Paulette plans to establish a dancing career or become a registered nurse. She enjoys dancing and designing.

Alice Hilliard, second alternate, is a native of Hazlehurst. She is a cosmetology major who plans to become a hair designer and fashion coordinator. Even though this was her first pageant appearance, Alice can be seen most Saturdays on "Black Gold."

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club, "Thespians," is designed to give students a chance to demonstrate their abilities in all forms of the dramatic arts. It is open to all students who are enrolled at Utica Junior College. Each year in May, the Thespians along with the choir, present the Dramatics and Music Awards, a parody of the Academy Awards. The dramatic arts and music students perform songs and forensic acts. Also, at this time, students are awarded trophies, plaques, and certificates for their outstanding participation in the organization. Too, the best actor, best actress, best supporting actor, and best supporting actress awards are presented to the deserving and talented students selected by faculty judges.

Each year, the Thespians compete in the Communicative Art Festival at Jackson State University. For the past two years, the Thespians won first place in dramatic monologue and oral interpretation of poetry, respectively. The Thespians also participate in other Communicative Arts Festivals across the state of Mississippi.

As beautiful and golden brown as the crisp leaves in the fall, brighter than sunshine on a clear summer day. Like the little watery eyes when old man winter calls, and a rose in the springtime when the aroma never seems to go away. For the beautiful color and sun in September, and for its fragrance, this day I will remember. I will remember this day when I am no longer able to play. I will remember my nursery school days and Ms. Evans until I am old and gray.

I am the one who always does what you ask me to do; I am the one who really loves you. I am the one who always stay clean; I am the one with the bright ideas and a mind ever so keen. I am your little sweetheart, at least, that is what you say; I am the one who never does wrong and yet, must always pay. I am the one who sometimes go into a rage; I am you, mom and dad, when you were my age.

Defense is the key to the game.

Let me show you how the pros do it.

Look at that fast break!

To late. Better luck next time.

Forget it, you will never make it with Jerry on defense.

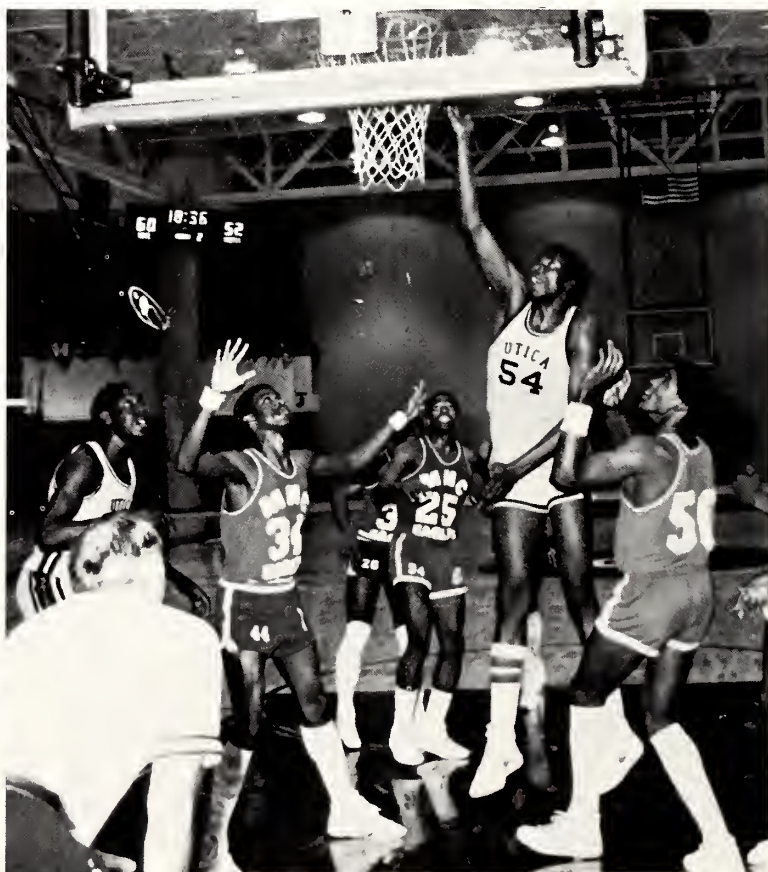

Heraldo struggles to make two points.

Ervin goes in with a finger roll. Two good.

Useless to jump, boys? You do have a good point.

Alton laid one in, giving the Bulldogs a ten point lead.

Ervin glides pass the Eagles for another two points. It's gone Eagles.

Surrounded by Eagles, George goes UP for two.

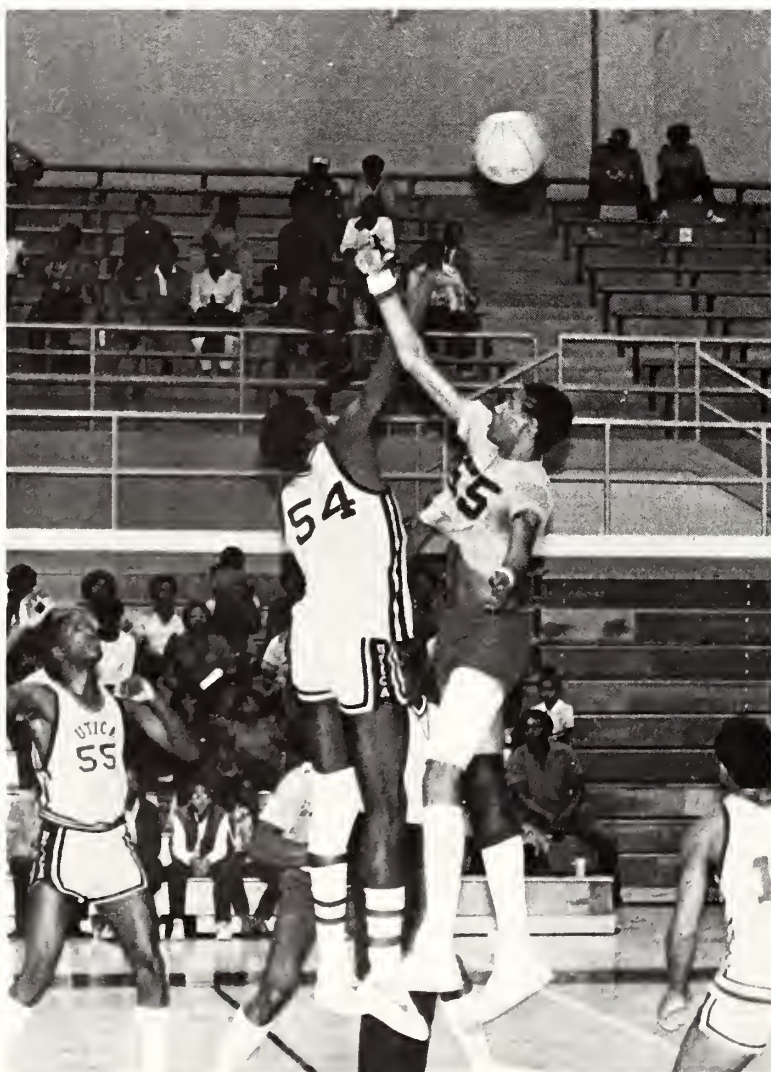

Dunk—now take that with you.

Michael, now is that anyway to treat company? TWO.

Can you tell from just one of those faces that they have a twenty point lead? Can this be called player burn-out?

Who controls the ball? Big Al says he does.

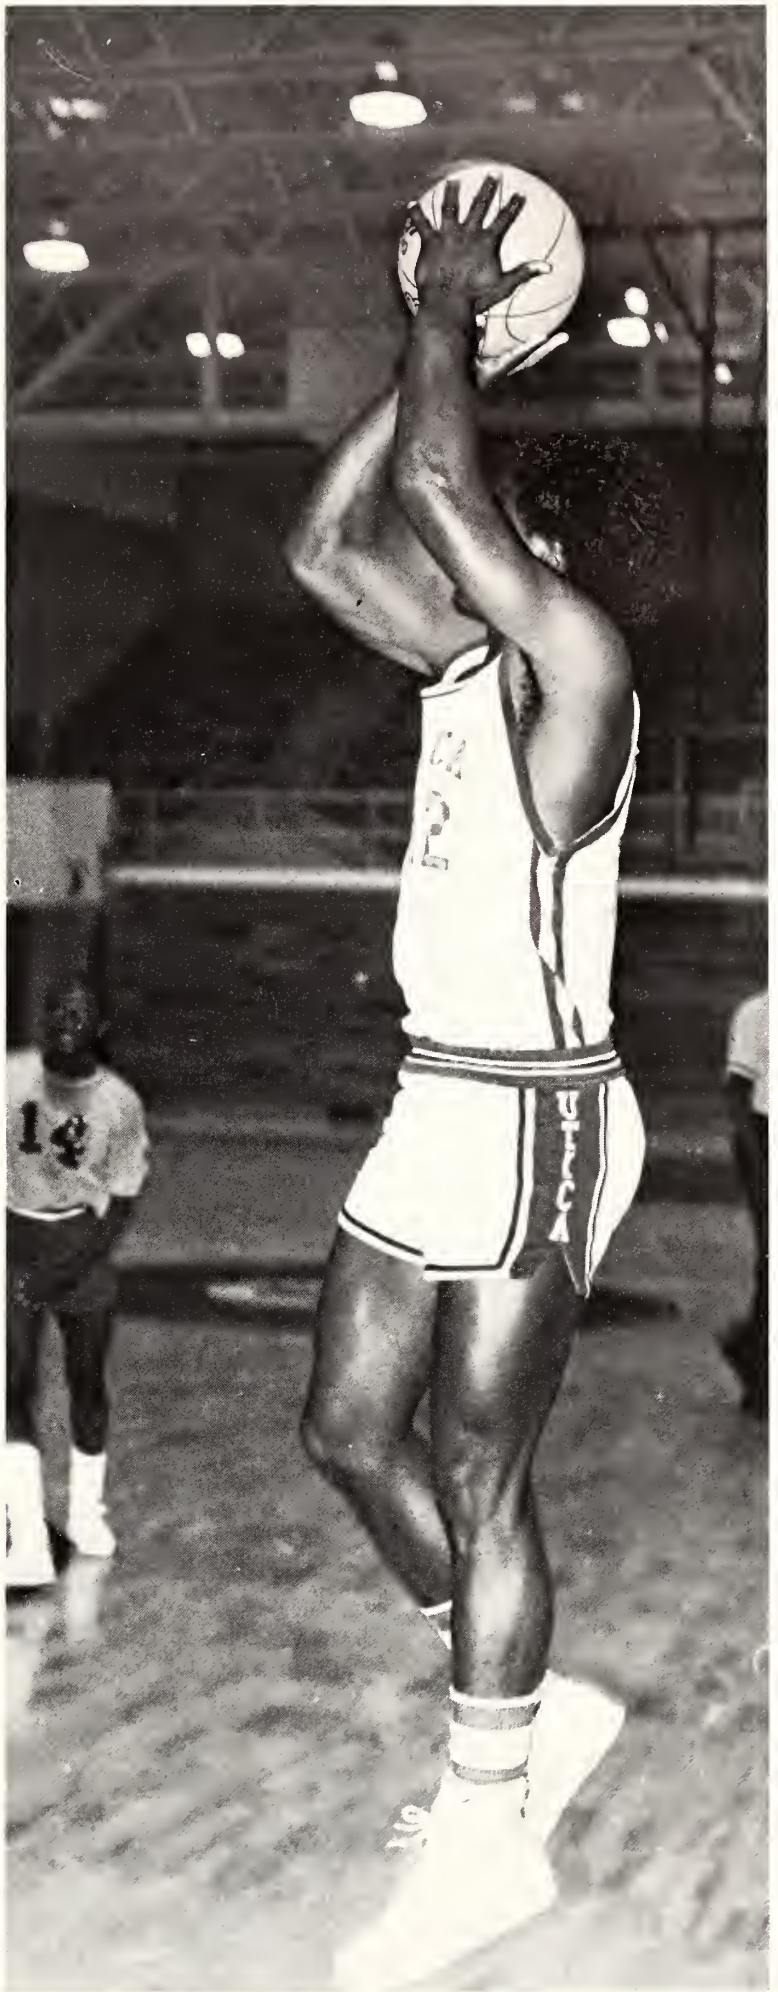

Eddie goes up for his twenty points for the night.

Al hits another one.

Pass the ball Eddie, you can't shoot them all.

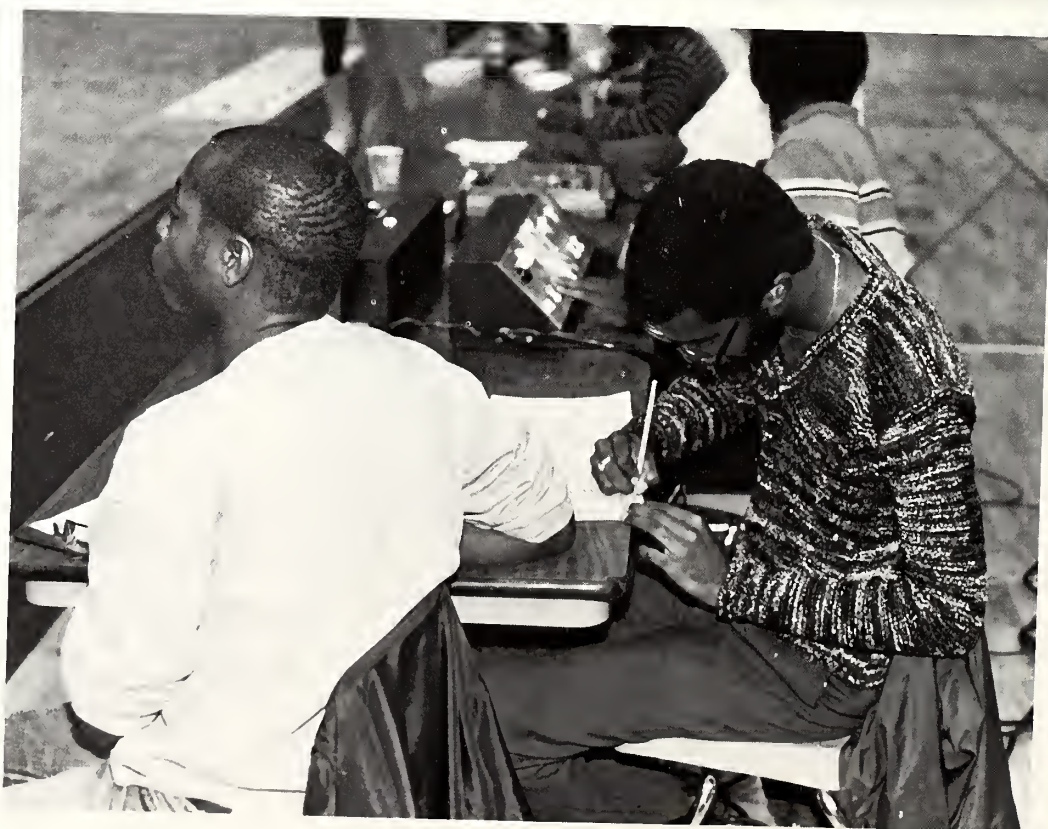

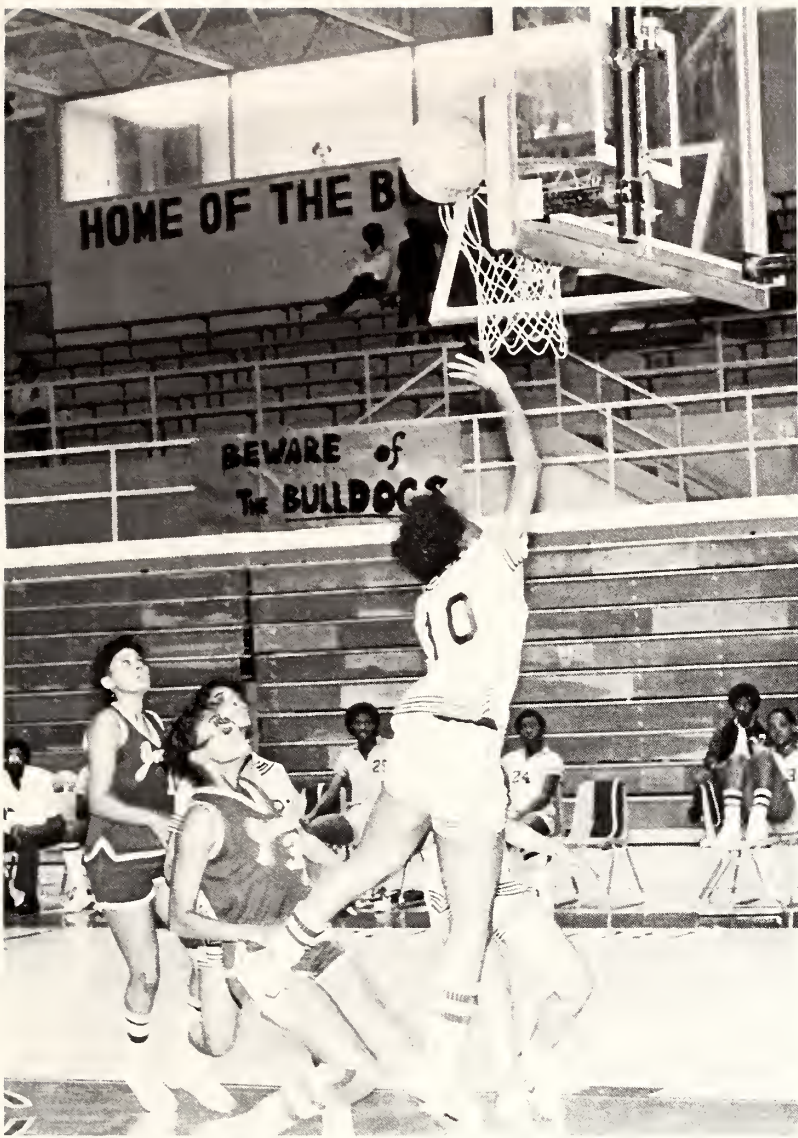

Larry calls it game.

Coach Owens gives the girls a pep talk.

Karen is awesome from the corner.

Louellen, let's begin play.

Linda Shoots for two points while Sarah goes in for the rebound.

Now this is really what you call team work.

Cynthia shoots and adds two more points to the Bulldogs' already thirty (30) point lead.

An easy lay-up for Jewel.

Karen intercepts the ball and goes for the two points.

Karen has a devastating corner jump-shot. Two

There is just no stopping Karen from the corner. Two more—and game.

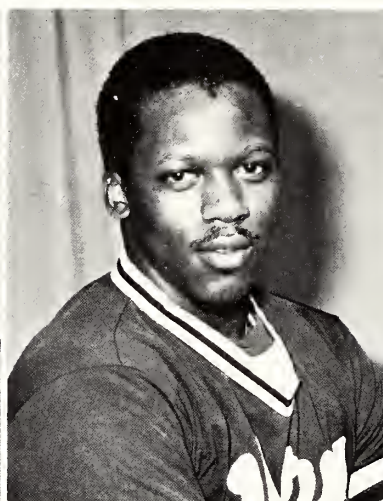

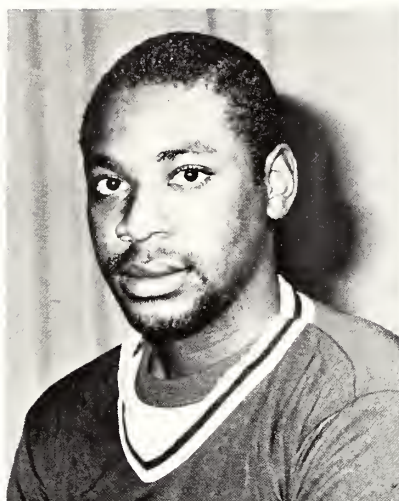

Let's not get violent Eaglettes. Accept the fact that the Lady Bulldogs are Bad.

We, the staff have done our best to capture the memories, emotions, and experiences of the past year and compiled them into the 1983 Uticanite. We extend our deepest appreciation to all who have helped make this ensemble possible. We would like to give a special applaud of thanks to Ms. Ealey, Mr. Anderson, the student body, and the staff.

There was a lot of hard work to be done yet we tried to conquer it all. We hope the 1983 Uticanite will serve as a cherished possession as you reach toward a new horizon.
